Sunday School Fair at Fresno

Fresno will be the Sunday School capitol of California next week when the Central California Sunday School fair opens its gates at the Fresno county fairground. Sponsored jointly by the Fresno council of churches and the Fresno chapter of the national association of Evangelicals, over 2,000 Sunday School teachers and administrators are expected to attend three days of intensive class sessions. Hundreds will see more than 70 exhibits.

Thousands not otherwise connected with Sunday Schools are expected to attend the three times daily rallies which will feature inspirational talks by leading SS and church figures. Total attendance is expected to reach the 30,000 mark.
